

ICBC (Asia) Presents “An Insight and Analysis to China and Hong Kong Market” Investment Seminar

14 May 2013, Hong Kong – To enable investors to grasp the opportunities in the changing market, ICBC (Asia) and SG Securities (HK) Limited jointly organized “An Insight and Analysis to China and Hong Kong Market” investment seminar. The seminar was well received with nearly 700 participants.

Four significant investment experts hosted talks at the seminar, including Mr. Henry Kwok, Fund Manager of ICBC (Asia) Investment Management Company Limited, Mr. Edmond Lee, Director of Global Equity Flow at SG Securities (HK) Limited, Ms. Eva Tsoi, Vice President of Global Equity Flow at SG Securities (HK) Limited, and Mr. Chan Wing Luk, famous stock commentator. They shared their expertise and analysis on the current market as well as investment strategies.

Mr. Henry Kwok believes that with the change of leadership in China just completed, it is less likely to make any major changes to the current policies. He expected any fiscal policies to the market will focus mainly on limited expansion, thus suggested investors to focus on Mainland consumption sector and the China A shares ETF.

Mr. Edmond Lee and Ms. Eva Tsoi have introduced the trading technique and in particular the risk/return nature of warrants and CBBCs (Callable Bull/Bear Contracts) to the investors, which is helpful to enhance investors’ investment portfolio.

The talk reached its climax when the renowned stock commentator Mr. Chan Wing Luk gave his insightful analysis on mainland property developer and insurance sectors. From the fervent response of the participants, the talk was informative and valuable to them.

Adhering to the customer-oriented spirit, ICBC (Asia) will continue organizing similar activities in future and provide customers with latest investment information, striving for being the trustable wealth management partner of the customers.
